Pair Found Guilty in Dope Case

Two men arrested March 29 on charges of possession of marijuana have been found guilty in Superior Court.

Jerry L. Stephens, 20, and Wendell L. Lehigh, 22, both of 20821 Amie Ave., were found guilty of the charges before Judge Bernard Lawler Thursday. They have been ordered to appear June 30 for probation and sentencing.

Stephens and Lehigh were arrested by Torrance police when their landlady became suspicious of an odor coming from the apartment and called police.

Narcotics Topic for Discussion

John D. Kirby, of 1812 Plaza del Amo, will address parents and students tonight at Lowell High School in La Habra. Kirby is the executive secretary of the American Institute of Narcotics Education.

Following the address, Kirby will participate with parents and students in a panel discussion on the dangers of using narcotics and drugs.

In addition to his work with the American Institute of Narcotics Education, Kirby is statewide chairman of "Project Punishment," a drive seeking stiffer penalties for convicted drug peddlers.

EC Faculty Names New President

Psychology instructor Logan Fox will serve as president of the El Camino College Faculty Association for the 67-68 college year. He succeeded Maxine Trevethen, business education instructor.

Fox who joined the ECC faculty in 1963, holds a junior college diploma from David Lipscomb College, a bachelor's degree from Pepperdine College, and a master's degree from the University of Chicago.

Serving with Fox will be three members of the counseling staff—James Norris as first vice president, Steve Muck as second vice president and Dr. Olive Hall as secretary. Business education instructor Bertha Craft will serve as secretary.

Director Retires

Martin Bralvogel, director of planning for the County Regional Planning Commission for the past 14 years, announced his retirement as of Sept. 30.

Recital for Top Students Slated Sunday Afternoon

A concert of outstanding students of the Gray School of Music of San Pedro will be presented Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Dodson Junior High School auditorium, 28014 Monterey Drive, San Pedro.

Students selected for the recital are those chosen by a panel of six judges not associated with the school. A series of auditions were held to select the recital performers, according to Mrs. Roxie Gray, director and counselor for the school.

Performances are scheduled on guitar, piano, violin, trumpet, saxophone, and clarinet, Mrs. Gray said. One student will be presented as a vocalist and one each on accordion and on flute.

Admission to the program is without charge.
